

“Little Bunny Foo-foo and her Two-Two Friends!”

<lol>

Fun!?!

No instructions! <what!?!>

Yes! Jamie painted this about 12 years ago and didn't write any instructions (shame on her!), probably because it was one of the extra patterns from her first book.

Choose your own color palette!

Example shown is a similar palette as Jamie has used for years. So, you can select the colors you would like for this design...be brave now!

It is fun and challenging at the same time...you can do it! This design was painted on a piece of paintable magnetic sheeting (cut out around the edges); you can paint it on the surface of your choice.

Enjoy!

Happy Easter!
